

Bushfire

Strangeways

In my shoes, in my shoes
There is so much to remind me
As the stars come out above me, home
 Cool wind, clear my head
 Bright sun grow my food
 Strong rain clear my heart
 Fill my land it's a new day
 I don't know why it is sold
 Don't know why it's so cold
 In this life that we live
 New day, new day, new day
 In my shoes, in my shoes
 There is so much to astound me
 As the whirlpool spins around me, home

 Bushfire, burn and grow
 Sunset watch and rest low
 Long night holding child close
 Feed my dream
 It's a new day
 I don't know why it is sold
 Don't know why it's so cold
 In this life that we live
 New day, new day, new day
 It's larger than life
 Darker than death
 We're gonna move
 Those mountains aside
 Here come the messages
