Revolution

One Minute Silence

Make me a part of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my
Wish you all well, wish you all wellPart of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my
Wish you all well, wish you all
Well, well, well againIt hurts, no I mean this is gonna hurt
I wont go quietly like you
Not possible, impossible
But yesterdays alive in you
(What do you mean we die)
We die, my God it almost passed me by Pray the day comes I play you
Enough, I keep hearing war's the word
Hard to breathe, hard to breatheMake me a part of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my
Wish you all well, wish you all wellPart of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my
Wish you all well, wish you all wellFocus on the door behind you
Focus on the whores behind you, yes indeed
Focus on the souls beside you
Focus on your day and all the hate you burn to breathe
Focus on the time behind you
Focus on the minds inside and how they read
Focus on the message in this
Focus on the crime of 'I decide who gets to eat'DIY or die
Till debt do we
Hollywood or die, Hollywood I pray
First things first to, not trust me
My heart is for the first soul, selling changeYou and me and why
Your pain moves me
Catatonic lives, nothing there I pray
First things first to, not trust me
My heart is for those living, still in chainsMake me a part of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my

Wish you all well, wish you all wellPart of your revolution and free my soul
Welcome to the heart of the revolution
To free my
Wish you all well, wish you all
