

Pull the Curtains

Grandaddy

Pull the curtains on the day
Sometimes it is the only way Pull the curtains on the day
Sometimes it is the only way Pull the curtains on the night
Sometimes it isn't worth the fight Sometimes you gotta turn it off
And you gotta walk away
And then sometimes you gotta say
"This is gonna be the day" Sometimes you gotta turn it off
Yeah, you gotta walk away
And then sometimes you gotta say
"There ain't no other fuckin' way" Sometimes you gotta turn it off
And you gotta walk away
And then sometimes you gotta say
"This is gonna be the day" Sometimes you gotta turn it off
Yeah, you gotta walk away
And then sometimes you gotta say
"There ain't no other fuckin' way" Pull the curtains on the day
Sometimes it is the only way We'll pull the curtains on the night
Sometimes it isn't worth the fight Just to feel alright
Just to feel alright
Just to feel alright
Just to feel alright
Just to feel alright
