Patrick Swayze

Mugison

lover i saw a pink sun fade away and loved her so long night turned into to day i'm so lost where have you gone
lover i felt several blades of grass and rested there till one whole year had past
when will i have you like the sky where we can use the clouds to hide so we can swim around in blue and white and i can feel your sun from both sides
we'll put these hopes into the sky we'll flood the sun and drown the earth in our light cause i'm so lost where have you gone
