Fear No Evil

Trouble

In the midst of the darkness
A man dressed in black
He is the one cast down from heaven
And is alive in himBeware the son of Satan
Born of a jackal
From the land of the demons
I believe it's hellThe man cares nothing for you
He only wants your soul
You have the right to choose your way
Don't play the foolBeware the son of Satan
Born of a jackal
From the land of the demons
I believe it's hellWe must stand together
Believe in love
For Jesus Christ will save
Sinners of creation
