Buried Dreams

Carcass

Welcome, it's a world of hate
Your life of buried dreams
Smothered by the soils of fateWelcome to a world of pain
Bitterness, your only wealth
The sands of time kicked in your face
Rubbed in your faceWhen aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is goneWhen expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
And all you need is hateWhen aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is goneWhen expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
And all you need is hateIn futility for self preservation
We all need someone
Someone to hateWelcome to a world of hateHateWhen aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is goneWhen expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
And all you need is hateHate
