Light Surrounding You

Evermore

I see you by the water
Your toes dipped in the sand
I thought that it was over
I thought you'd understand
But the feeling is returning
Though time has made us change
And I understand if you don't Wanna talk to me about it
Tonight
Oh, tonightCos I see the light surrounding you
So don't be afraid of something newTime was overtaking me
And I guess I was confused
They were all inviting me
But I wish I had refused
Cos I'd been there before
And I've seen it all
And I believe in youAnd if you never had my heart
I would've never called you back
At the start that night
So I want you to knowThat I see the light surrounding you
So don't be afraid of something new
Cos I see the light surrounding you
So don't be afraid of what you're turning intoBlue-eyed sun shines on me
In the morning
Can't help but feel a little cold
Thinking of youCos I see the light surrounding you
So don't be afraid of something new
Cos I see the light surrounding you
So don't be afraid of what you're turning into
No, don't be afraid
Don't be afraid
Cos I see the light
Cos I see the light
Cos I see the light surrounding you
