Surprise

joy kills sorrow

Nights alone why do you waste your time when I?m so close by?

Seven blocks and nineteen houses make your way back to my side.
You?ve been your whole life in your self

I would never try to stop you.

I?m not what you thought you wanted, I could be your great surprise.

Picture me upon your knee, just tea for two and two for tea.
One for you nineteen for me, we?ll listen while you fall asleep.

You can?t live your life in your self.
But if you want to try, I can love you.

I?m not what you thought you wanted, but I could be your great surprise.
I?m not what you thought you wanted, I could be your great surprise
