American Boy

All

American boy, living life as it goes Sittin' on the fence posts Living in the lie American boy, living in the real world Trying just to get the girl Trying to survive
Chorus:
The simple things in life are always new growing up on Sam Hill avenue Mama makes her cookies and daddy's just the greatest living hero that ever was Nothing in the world can ever once destroy the hope of an american boy Living off of bar tips, trying for relationships looking for the love Suddenly rise, an american beauty suddenly he cheats, sent from above
Chorus:

The simple things in life are always new
growing up on Sam Hill avenue
Mama makes her cookies and daddy's just
the greatest living hero that ever was Nothing in the world can ever once destroy the dream of an american boy American boy, raising little babies hearing daddy maybe, I'll be like you Suddenly life, seems just like a new dawn that's grown up, american boy
Chorus:
The simple things in life are always new growing up on Grandview avenue Mama makes her cookies and daddy's just
the greatest living hero that ever was Nothing in the world will ever once destroy No, nothing in the world will ever once destroy the hope of an american boy
