

Comes of Love

Sara Masterson

Iâ€™ve got to admit that itâ€™s beautiful in between the spaces that fill our distance.

Or maybe youâ€™re blind from the light that intrudes your eyes,

But this is what comes of love;

this is what comes of love.

Love is short, and forgetting so long.

Night has fallen your eyes are looking at mine,

but I know that youâ€™re seeing right through me.

Maybe your mind is alive with the memories,

but this is what comes of love,

this is what comes of love.

Love is short, and forgetting so long.
