

Time Changes Everything

The Plot In You

I let my days slip away
We swore we'd never change
And we'd stay the same
But time changes everything Let my head get in the way
Kept getting wasted and pilled out
The highs that I feel now are nothing the same
Keep to myself
Keep ignoring my health
While you all play it safe
Cause I never felt so alive
No I never felt so alive
No I never felt so alive I let my days slip away
I swore I'd never change
And I'd stay the same
Time changes everything Let my head get in the way
I kept her calling for days
I'm just the ghost of a good fucking soul just a phase
It's all just a phase
Swallow my problems
The ones that I can't touch
As I drift away
Fade away
Can't forgive myself
Can't forget yesterday I let my days slip away
We swore I'd never change
And I'd stay the same
Time changes everything Sink into a place
Into a self induced coma
Hear the walls sing
Clench your fists and just float on Sink into a place
Into a self induced coma
Hear the walls sing
Clench your fists and just float on Cause I never felt so alive
No I never felt so alive I let my days slip away
I swore I'd never change
And I'd stay the same
Time changes everything
I let my days slip away

I swore I'd never change
And I'd stay the same
Time changes everything
I let my days slip away
I swore I'd never change
And I'd stay the same
