

Melissa Louise

gonna bake a cake as fast as i can gonna use your socks to butter the pan ain't seen you for two weeks i hate it when i have to wait girl, i'm glad you're not exactly like me you're as whatever as i wish i could be i freaked you when i said my lucky number was the number eight the difference there is between the two could fit underneath a hoof and shoe i ain't so good with my analogies melissa louise and me i need a holiday to get my smirk back a week of sunning and a three day cat nap i'd rather be with you i hope there's nothing wrong with that i'm coming out there, snow sleet, rain or hail i'm coming out there, i don't need no seat sale you don't gotta clean, i ain't allergic to your cat the difference there is between the two could fit underneath a hoof and shoe i ain't so good with my analogies melissa louise and me melissa louise and me the difference there is between the two could fit underneath a hoof and shoe i ain't so good with my analogies melissa louise and me melissa louise and me
