Come Into My Life

Emilia

Love is a feeling
That can make you blind
You've got all this love inside
And it makes you warmWill you believe me?
Not put me aside
For every day that passes
You mean more to meCome into my life right now
And I'll make you complete
There is no one else
I'm for you entirelyCome into my life right now
Let me touch up your day
There is now one else
I'm for you entirely, entirelyCan you forgive me
For my empty words?
Now, I will be a Queen
And you'll put down your swordTell me you see me
With your big blue eyes
See the woman in me
Now that cherish you soCome into my life right now
And I'll make you complete
There is no one else
I'm for you entirelyCome into my life right now
Let me touch up your day
There is now one else
I'm for you entirely, entirelyAnd I will stand by you forever more
I'll be right there, oh yes
I'll be right there, I will
I'll be right there for youCome into my life right now
For you, I'll be right there
There is no one else
I'll be there, I'll be right there
Entirely
