Weyes Blood

I stand apart from the rest
I had so much to give where does my life go those close to me may know I've squandered my time
got rid of that dream of mine and now you can't stay please baby, don't go away just give me more time

I'll change my mind
I'll change
I'll change

I stand apart from the rest
I now must confess I play a selfish game
only I'm the one to blame I have squandered my mind
got rid of that dream of mine
and now you gotta leave baby take pity on me
we can leave all the pain behind gettin rid of that vice of mine just give
me more time

I'll change my mind
I'll change

I'll change I'll change my mind, I'll change
