

Blinded

Beseech

I remember a star
a star I can still see one among the others
that shined so gracefully I wish you stopped me
and embraced my soul
but now it's too late and tomorrow I'll be gone I was blinded by your lies Lost in the shadows of sins I made for you
the love you gave
is no longer mine
even when you're gone
the light will shine on my memory of you
will never go away
I was blinded by your lies
