It Won't Be Long

No Fun At All

I've got to find a way to see you
But you're avoiding me I really don't know why, yeah
So many people say I'm handsome
I'm so confused that you won't see me all the time, yeah
I know it won't be long
Until you hear this song
I know it won't be long
Until you sing alongWhat will I have to do to get you
You just ignore me when I try to catch you're eye, yeah
I beg you please to reconsider
I won't give up until you stand here by my side, yeah
