

Sacrifice

Wishing Well

I see a dark cloud of sorrow
I see a river of blood
I see no sunshine tomorrow
I see no faith hope or love We burned the stairway to Heaven
We added fuel to the fire
We ruined the garden of Eden
For our selfish desire Soon God will unleash the beast
Get ready for the feast
Soon we will all be deceased
We have to open our eyes
It's time to realize
We have to die to survive We have to destroy the demon
That lives inside you and me
Sooner or later there will be
Weeping and gnashing of teeth
