

The Derelict

Fleetwood Mac

Written by Dave Walker.

Oh I slept in a derelict

And I ate off the floor

I was wrapped in a blanket

As a knock came on the door

You can get out of here

Said a man in a raincoat

So I moved in with you and you loved me Took a trip down the highway

And I spoke with my folks

It's a serious business

And there's no time for jokes

You can get out of here

Said a middle aged lady

So I moved in with you, and you loved me

Yes you loved, you loved me

There was so much at stake

Too much confusion

I'd had all I could take

No more get out of heres

From a man in a raincoat

Cause I moved in with you, and you loved me

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>