Stay

Sophia Avocado

I was sitting in my bedroom wondering lots of things
Itâ€™s when I realized today was the day you were leaving
I jumped up quickly and ran out the door
Knowing no one could love you more than me

I asked you an impossible question
That only you could have a solution to
I asked you an impossible question
Do you have a solution

[Chorus]
Why canâ€™t you stay
For just another day
Why canâ€™t you stay
For just another day
Why canâ€™t you stay

I woke up tears streaming down my face
But where were you
I ran downstairs and checked every place
But your stuff was gone to

[Bridge]
I cried the whole morning through
Just looking for any trace of you
Didnâ€™t want you to leave and now you left
The whole family

I asked you an impossible question
That only you could have a solution to
I asked you an impossible question
Do you have a solution

[Chorus]
Why canâ€™t you stay
For just another day
Why canâ€™t you stay
For just another day
Why canâ€™t you stay

Why canâ€™t you stay
Why canâ€™t you stay
