Wrecking Ball

Frankmusik

Baby you let me down
Im closing the door
I cant bear to see
Your sweet eyes anymore
Every second that I stay
Im sinking further in
To your clever little games
And the heartache that they bring
Dont you know by now
When I scream out loud
That Im done with you
And the things you do
I cant run or hide
From your love or lies
Can I win a war
When youre changing sides
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
Its like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it, tear it
Picking up parts of me
Scattered on the floor
Reckless love is strong
I wish my soul was more
Terrified and scared to death
Im searching for a way
To keep you more in check
Hear what I gotta say
Dont you know by now
When I scream out loud
That Im through with you
And the things you do
I cant run or hide
From your love or lies

Can I win a war
When youre changing sides
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
Its like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby now Im taking cover
Youre my destructive lover
Baby you are like no other
Wrecking all of us
Baby you are like no other
Youre wrecking all of us
With a wrecking ball
Do you really want to wreck us all
With a wrecking ball
Wreck it all
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
Its like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
Its like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart

Dont you know by now
That Im done with you
I cant run or hide
From your love or lies
Can I win a war
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
Its like
Every time you tear me down down
Tear me down down
With your wrecking ball heart
Baby tear it apart
