Trust Is a Curious Word (feat. Chelsea Owen)

Absinth3

I was lost
I didn't know where to find you
But I did know where to go

You were gone
Left without a reason
Left the keys beside the door

Do you remember
When you took me by the hand
And you said you wouldn't go

But I knew
That you were fooling around girl
And there was nothing I could do

Thank you
for setting me free
You should have done that long ago

Thank you
for leaving me be
You are now my shadow

I was right
You never really loved me
But I was just a fool

He was hiding
Behind the glass screen
How could you be so cruel

Oooh (Improvised Fills)

Thank you
for setting me free
You should have done that long ago

Thank you
for leaving me be

You are now my shadow

Thank you
for forgetting my name
I don't want you in my life

Thank you
for taking all the blame
I'll see you in the afterlife

You can pack your bags and leave today
We ain't getting back together
No way

So take your clothes
Take your keys
And get away
And run for the trees (Improvised Fills)

Thank you
for setting me free

Thank you
for leaving me be

Thank you

Thank you
