Lovin' You

Calvin Richardson

You know I've been loving you too long
To stop nowI'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
In the morning
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of dayAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late, in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazyThe weekend is here
And you've been on my mind
Five days of work and stress
No quality timeSo baby, get at me
Any way that you can
And there better not be
Any change of plansI'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
In the morning
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of dayAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late, in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazyListen, can't wait for you to get here
And tell me all about your day
A thousand things we would do
A thousand things we would sayI think about you all of the time
Don't wanna hear from my friends
And if they come knocking at my door
They won't be coming inI'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
In the morning
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of dayAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late, in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazyI'll be here
I'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
In the morning, in the morning, baby
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of day, oh yeahAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late, in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazyHelp me say

I'm loving you
I'm holding you, oh yeah
I'll be here, babyI'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
In the morning, oh yeah
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of day, yeahAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazyLoving you, loving me, baby
Holding you, holding me, darlingI'll be loving you, loving you, loving you
Holding you, holding me, holding you
At the noon of day, oh yeahAnd wanting you, wanting you, wanting you
Late, in the midnight hour, baby
I'm telling you, telling you, I'm telling you
Girl, it's crazy
