

I Want What She's Got

Dad

She holds out her hand
In warning or welcome
Haven't told anyone yet
She takes mine and says
If you can't do it right
Try again?
Yeah I've been repeating mistakes
Just to see what breaks
In someone else, or myself
She breathes deeply
And keeps me inside? Until the stars disappears
And the sun's coming up in my eyes
I want what she's got
I can see her heart
And not the rules we live by
I want what she's got
I feel her hands will catch
Whatever may come
I want what she's got She says that life is a toy
It's not a game
Don't be afraid to get caught
I said I wish I'd felt the same
To be someone I'm not
With my name
But if it's in you you'll find it
Don't be afraid of me
I'm close but never in the way
She's my morning,
At the end of the night Until the stars disappears ?..
And the sun's coming up in my eyes
I want what she's got
I can see her heart
And not the rules we live by
I want what she's got
I feel her hands will catch
Whatever may come
I want what she's got
The stars disappears
And here comes the sun?

Here comes the sun
