Bad Luck & Hard Love

Black Stone Cherry

Big train rolling down the line

Makes me lonely

Sometimes I wish to ride away

Sometimes I want to ride awayBig plane flying through the clouds

Makes me worry

Sometimes I wish to fly away

Sometimes I want to fly awayBut you can't judge a book, looking at the cover You can't love someone, messing with another, no

You can't win a war, fighting with your brother

You wanna have peace, gotta love one anotherBig guns lighting up the sky

Makes me worry

Sometimes I wish to run away

Sometimes I want to run awayBut you can't judge a book, looking at the cover You can't love someone, messing with another, no

You can't win a war, fighting with your brother

You wanna have peace, gotta love one anotherI have seen my brothers

In ashes on the ground

And maybe in a new life

We can turn this thing aroundBut you can't judge a book, looking at the cover You can't love someone, messing with another, no You can't win a war, fighting with your brother

You wanna have peace, gotta love one anotherNo you can't judge a book

Gotta love one another
Can't judge a book
No you can't judge a book
