

Time

Mikky Ekko

'Cause time doesn't love you anymore
But I'm still knocking at your door
Only we can run forever
If forever is what's in store
Oh time to take me home

On a tree in the garden I carve your name
In a word that spell desire
Like an ocean deep where the waters heaving, heaving
And your love pours down like a waterfall
And I can't escape the tide
Here's my hand baby, take it or leave it, leave it

'Cause time doesn't love you anymore
But I'm still knocking at your door
Only we can run forever
If forever is what's in store
Oh time to take me home
