Boomerang

Poco

I gave my heart away
It came back like a boomerang
Busted up and split in two
By a woman on the looseDon't know how much I can take
I can't stand another break
I'm not up to getting used
In a game of win or loseExcuse me
But I think I got the blues
She tried ho use me
Now She's onto someone new BoomerangIt's essential that I must Find somebody I can trust
If I'm puttin' in the time
I need it somewhere near the line
That we can draw if it gets too weak
And one of us wants to leave
From a broken love affair
It's time to clear the air
