

Everything You Say Sounds Like Gospel

Matt Nathanson

I've got bravery that shorts out on me
I see superstars in common thieves
And I see all you give up
And I try to be as much Everything you say
It sounds like gospel
Everything you say
It sounds like gospel to me I feel cheated, tangled up repeatedly
Owed a piece of everything
And still you come around
With scissors to cut me down Everything you say
It sounds like gospel
Everything you say
It sounds like gospel to me
