

Alley Cat

Tiny Flowers

Last call, give me something
I just heard her say
A Tuesday night at the Alley Cat
Can end this way They'll turn on the lights
And shove us out the door
Just give me a sign
Cause I'd love to take you home
Or go anywhere Iron Maiden on the jukebox
Run to the Hills
When she knows every word by heart
You know she kills I'm wasted
Every night
Haven't seen you around before
And I think I like They're gonna turn on the lights
And shove us out the door
Ah so give me a sign
Cause I'd love to take you home
If you wanna be wild
And you feel the way I do
Just give me a sign
And let's go home Ohhhh it's fine
We probably won't remember this
So where's the crime
No one has to know
Ohhhh that's right
Reapply the lipstick for me
And take... your time
(But we really gotta go) Hey I swear they'll turn on the lights
And shove us out the door
Oh just give me a sign
Cause I'd love to take you home
If you wanna be wild
And you feel the way I do
Just give me a sign
And let's go home
Or I'll go anywhere
