Mannequin

Yuna

Who are you? What you want from me?
I've got nothing to give
Are you here to waste time with me?
Cause time is all I haveI don't know what it means to feel whole
You're next to me, but I feel so cold with you
I will be your mannequin, love
Moving my lips the way that you want
Remain the same whenever you walk awayI will be your mannequin, love love love
I will be your mannequin, love love
I will be your mannequin, love love
I will be your mannequin, love love loveI am the deepest shade of jaded
Drowning from the past, love
Can you breathe, breathe love into me?
So I'll know what it's likeI don't know what it means to feel whole
You're next to me, but I feel so cold with you
I will be your mannequin, love
Moving my lips the way that you want
Remain the same whenever you walk awayI will be your mannequin, love love love
I will be your mannequin, love love
I will be your mannequin, love love
I will be your mannequin, love love loveLove, love, I will be your mannequin, love love
I will be your mannequin, love love
