Out Of Bounds

Bon Jovi

A loaded gun needs no alibis
Out on the street, where the truth's a lie
Wasted blood that I left behind
Broken hearts leave a young man blind
I need protection on the underground
I'm going down, down, down, down, down
Out of bounds, you can't cross that line
Out of bounds is out of time
Out of bounds is where I'll be
I can't hold on but I can't break free
I'm going down, down, down, down, down
Out of bounds, out of bounds
You're asking why but who's to say
The things you've done haven't gone away?
Nowhere to run, no one to blame
I'm just a puppet in a bad man's game
I need protection on the underground
I'm going down, down, down, down, down

Out of bounds, you can't cross that line
Out of bounds is out of time
Out of bounds is where I'll be
I can't hold on but I can't break free
I'm going down, down, down, down, down
Out of bounds, out of bounds
So say a prayer for the innocent
It's the innocent who believe
You can't forgive what you can't forget
When that innocent man was me
Out of bounds, you can't cross that line
Out of bounds is out of time
Out of bounds is where I'll be
I can't hold on but I can't break free
I'm going down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down
Out of bounds, out of bounds, out of bounds
Out of bounds, out of bounds, out of bounds
Out of bounds, out of bounds, out of bounds
