Open Your Eyes

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

As I walk along these streets
I see a man that walks alone
Distant echo of people's feet
He has no place to call his ownA shot rings out from a roof overhead
A crack head asks for change nearby
An old man lies in an alleyway dead
A little girl lost just stands there and criesWhat would you do, if it was you
Would you take everything
For granted like you do?A boy just thirteen on the corner for sale
Swallows his pride for another hit
Overpopulation there's no room in jail
But most of you don't give a shitThat your daughters are porno stars
And your sons sell death to kids
You're so lost in your little worlds
Your little worlds you'll never fixWhat would you do, if it was you
Would you take everything
For granted like you do?You turn away, you turn away
You turn away, you turn awayAs I walk along the streets
Soaking up the acid rain
Underneath the taxi cabs
I hear the streets cry out in vainWhat would you do, if it was you
Would you take everything
For granted like you do?
What would you do, if it was you
Would you take everything
For granted like you do?
