You Let Me Down

Sharleen Spiteri

Well, I can see that you
You weren't the one for me
But I was always there for you
And all you wanted to
Was run away with who
You left me feeling like a foolShould have known you'd be the one
You'd always be the one to let me down
Even when I was having fun
You'd always be the one to let me downIf there was nothing then
You should have said it when
I asked if there was someone new
And it's so strange to see
That you would lie to me
But then again I don't know youShould have known you'd be the one
You'd always be the one to let me down
Even when I was having fun
You'd always be the one to let me downShould have known you'd be the one
You'd always be the one to let me down
Even when I was having fun
You'd always be the one to let me down
