Sugarwater

Danny Malone

Face down in the sink
I found you there puking in your sleep
Ever get a sinking feeling
That there's a secret you're concealing?
Well, I guess we outta get you into bed
No we don't wanna miss out on the rest
Underneath the sinking feeling
Do you keep on getting
This unappealing
Well, you don't
Don't gotta know
What you don't wanna know
And they're onto you
You just move onto
A new doctor
Who's sharing medicine
To put it off a little
Bit longer yeah yeah
Bide your time release
Sink your bitter teeth
You sweet, sweet talker
Drink your sugarwater
It started as a
A hold your breath contest
The heart doesn't beat
Cardiac arrest
Can't you tell a shrink your feelings?
Oh, I'm sure it's nothing
Too revealing
Like you don't already know
But you already know
And they're onto you
You just move onto
A new doctor
Who's sharing medicine
To keep this up a little
Bit longer yeah yeah
Beta block it out
With that cotton mouth

You sweet, sweet talker
Drink your sugerwater
No no no no no
Cause nothing is wrong
Bop shoo wop
Bop shoo wop shoo win
No no no nothing is wrong
Bop shoo wop
No no now it's a butcher for a song
Bop shoo wop
Sugarwater baby
Bop shoo wop
No no ain't you a
Sweet talker
But a hack of a hypochondriac
Oh you're such a hack
Of a hypochondriac
