

Soap and Water

Chuck Prophet

Sweet butter, sour mash
Hot legs, cold cash
Dry hump, wet nurse
Loose change, tight purse Soap and water, my oldest friends
Nobody knows quite where we've been Close quarters, thick plot
Clean undies, dirty socks
Bad back, good side
Blood sugar, french fried Soap and water, my oldest friends
Nobody knows quite where we've been Long shot, close call
Storm windows, dark hall
Careless love, center stage
High roller, living wage Soap and water, my oldest friends
Nobody knows quite where we've been Sanda Mellow, Oscar Wilde
Blood pudding, pink tiles
Sweet nothing, bitter tears
Cracked lips, bathroom mirrors
