Songs Who Got Away

What's the view like from that bottle?
Is there room left at the inn?
Well, I'll be moving on tomorrow,
Just need to hide from where Iâ€™ve been.

Well don't go chasing lonely.
You won't like what you find.
Ain't no ever after happy,
If you leave it all behind.

But it's the life that you choose,
It's the choice that you lose,
The win that leaves you,
singin' the blues.
It's tears on the good days,
Smiles through the hard rain,Â
And words you waste on songs who got away.

Well top of the morning.
Wake me when it's done.
Ain't no kiss waiting here for me,
Not quite ready for the sun.

Climbing out of this here bottle.
Little drunk, but here I stand.
Mourning's done, bring on tomorrow.
Hard nights help make the man.

Well I went out chasing lonely.
Think you know just what I found.
Ain't no ever after happy,
When it all comes crashing down.

But it's the life that I chose,
It's the highs, it's the lows,
In death we learn that
New love grows.
Plant seeds on the good days,

Pray for a hard rain,
No words to waste on songs who got away.
