

Sandy

The Coronas

Well it sure was fun and it was nice that he asked us all to stay But he told me once that if you turn your head this place will change To dancing freaks and their happy feet but there is nothing in their head I'm sure you were horrified when he laughed at you and said Sandy this is something else,
I've never seen that face before
And I feel a lot more like myself and I wonder how far this should go So grab your guns and all things you think you'll need We're the chosen ones and we'll use all the force of this machine
To take them on, make us strong,
I can feel it up ahead
You should be organized but then I stopped and turned and said
Sandy this is something else,
I've never seen that face before
And I feel a lot more like myself
and I wonder how far this should go So what do you think they mean when they say they're in love with everyday Well I'm in between and I live in dreams, that's why I asked them all to say
