

Right Here in My Arms

HIM

She's smiling like heaven is down on earth
Sun is shining so bright it hurts
All her wishes have finally come true
Her heart is weeping. Happiness is killing her
She'll be right here in my arms
So in Love
She'll be right here in these arms
She can't let go
So hard she's trying
But her heart won't turn to stone oh no
She keeps on crying
But I won't leave her alone
She'll never be alone
She'll be right here in my arms
So in Love
She'll be right here in these arms
She can't let go
