

Undeniable

Paulina Rubio

In your brightly painted room
There's a trace of my perfume
And even though the lights are all on
It's always hard 'cos right before dawn But still it wasn't hard to see
There's something missing, that was me
And now it's undeniable
There's nothing so reliable Aah
True, we're through
Pretending there's no two of us
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable Aah
True, that you
Can just go on without me now
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable
Aah, true Like a black and white cartoon
Feels like I'm walking on the moon
And someone else is pulling the strings
Without you misses (incomprehensible) everything And now I know I can't survive
Without you baby by my side
It's simply undeniable
There's nothing so reliable Aah
True, we're through
Pretending there's no two of us
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable Aah
True, that you
Can just go on without me now
It's undeniable
Simply undeniable
Aah, true It's undeniable
There's nothing so reliable
To me and you It's simply undeniable
It's undeniable
Me and you It's undeniable
Me and you
