The House Of Gold & Bones

Stone Sour

Oh this is what it's coming to-
Another water loo
You wanna put me underground-
'Cus I'm overused
Giving up that your pulling me down
I will make you come unglued
You can cover me in sovilties
What an apogee
I can fake it 'cus you'll never be real to me
I'm innocent!
I know I'm nearly in
But if I can't understand I will never win!
The more I know my mind
The more I leave you all behind
Living in the shadow of doubt
I'll never obey, but I'll always decide
Oh my heart survived
I gotta do it alone
I will burn alive in the House of Gold and Bones
Oh old day epitome
Of all the shit in me
And I'm surrounded by the people I will never be Either way I've got nothing to prove-
To a song of a bitch like you
Well this is hell and I wanted it
But I'm an idiot-

It's a feat 'cus I know I'm illegitimate
Kill it!
I wanna see it!
I wanna feel it!
I will be here forever!
The more I know my mind
The more I leave you all behind
Living in the shadow of doubt
I'll never obey, and I'll always decide
Oh my heart survived
I gotta do it alone
I will burn alive in the House of Gold and Bones

The more I know my mind
The more I leave this world behind
Living in the shadow of doubt
I'm already gone, I'm already alive
Oh my heart survived
I gotta do it alone
I will burn alive in the House of Gold and Bones
Oh my heart survived
I gotta do it alone
I will burn alive in the House of Gold and Bones
In the House of Gold and Bones
In the House of Gold and Bones!
