Bunny

White Lung

You, you're a good one and it's true but you know I'll never spoil
You break me 9-4, I watch you 9-4
Bunny, I'm not your mother but I'll keep you pure and clean
I swear I'll never yell, I swear I'll never tell you thatMy water heart ends where you start
And we will live through the thick of this
Down
Ashes in the bed
Dirty little thread
The final is forever knowing that
I'm silent to the town
Blacken days will drown
The final is forever knowing you.
You know that I dream of scrubbing your little rotten liver clean
You say you'll never die, but thin blood just doesn't lie
And I know it will catch you when I'm off and good and dead
You're moving inside my head to save a warm space in the bed becauseMy water heart ends where you start
and we will live through the thick of this
I got you until the end
We're playing nice pretend
The final is forever knowing youYou're not a good one, you're just the right one
You're not a good one, you're just the right one
I'll scrub your liver clean
I'll scrub your liver clean
I'll scrub your liver clean
Until I die
