In Return

Breakbot

Sometimes the road can be so long
But on the way you know you'll find me
Sometimes the road can be so windy
But on the road is where we, both belong
When waters around us get so deep
But we may sail, we feel were drowning
When the hills ahead of me get so steep
Cause we will climb another mountain, woahhhGive me the strength to carry on Teach me the things I need to learn
Take me to the places we must go
I'll give you anything in return
Give me the strength to carry on
Give me fire so I can burn
Tell me the tales I need to know
I'll give you anything in return (In return, In return)
Anything in return (In return, In return)Your already here
But I can't see you
You are so near
Under the skin, I can feel you
When fall is around us fall asleep
I'll stay awake until you're dreaming
And when years from now, your where you seek It'll break my heart to see you leaving, woahhhGive him the strength to carry on Teach him the things he needs to learn
Take him to the places he must go
I'll give you anything in return
Give him the strength to carry on
Give him fire so he can burn
Tell him the tales he needs to know
I'll give you anything in return (In return, In return)
Anything in return
