The Last Farewell

Panda Bros

Lyrics: Kang Jian, Wang Xi
Composer: Wang Xi

Until you walk through the horizon
Still looking back
That day you and I kissed
More than a thousand words

The days of the bitter are sweet
The sea is bounded by heaven
The sea is bounded by heaven
I and you are missing
Memory drifting away

The sky was raining at an instant
Tapping yesterday's window

Early love is a long-cherished wish
I should learn to say goodbye
On the day you will be happy

Make the last farewell to you
Come by goodbye again

Guarding the vow of love
Can not fall in love
At least can be attached

The days of the bitter are sweet
The sea is bounded by heaven
The sea is bounded by heaven
More detailed lyrics
I and you are missing
Memory drifting away

The sky was raining at an instant
Tapping yesterday's window

Early love is a long-cherished wish

I should learn to say goodbye
On the day you will be happy

Make the last farewell to you
Come by goodbye again

Guarding the vow of love
Can not fall in love
Finally, only love

(Why the so-called nostalgia)
(Do not fly with you)
(Close the eyes appear)
(Surrounded by no way back)

I miss my dream (those painful thoughts into a nightmare)
I numb fell into the abyss (tearing numb nerves to the endless abyss)
I love you and farewell (why the so-called nostalgia do not fly with you)
I really have no way to retreat (close your eyes to surround the scene surrounded me no way back)
Miss you in the dream (those painful thoughts into the nightmare)
I fell into the endless abyss (tearing numb nerves to the endless abyss)

Finally, only love.
