Ghosts

Kensington

No, you will never be all
We were never all right
I was never all yours
You were never all mineSo, we'll take a road of our own
To a way that will lead
To the end we have seen
We will wander on freeNo, we will never have an only son
in our home
No, we will never have an only son in our homeI know that We've been fighting like soldiers
We've been living like vultures
We've been hiding like ghostsBut know this After everything's over Still together we'll be
In the air that we breathe
And the skies that we seeNo, we will never have an only son
in our home
in our home
