Revelations In The Calm

Oh, Sleeper

When leaders turn to cowards
And fall gutless to bribes
When seductions raise the curtains
And push virtue aside
A holocaust is coming
For all the pure in this world
You can't use ignorance
As an alibi anymore
We could all bear the world
And fold our dreams to faults
But when did hope fall short
And force our lines to crawl?
When the real horror's in mirrors
Looking back with a smile

And arsenals of words used
To wreck start to pile
A holocaust is coming
For all the pure in this world and
You can't use ignorance
In your alibi anymore
So when hell is at the gates
Who will stand and meet the waves
And take the fight to their graves
To end the dark campaign?
It's the reason we have come
To the forefront of this war
