October

Dolores O'riordan

October, October
The summer is over
I'm going through changes
I see you again
It's so thought provoking
Emotion evoking
I can't turn around
I don't want to pretend
You stand in my way
With nothing to say
You think you're the world
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you
I'll do it again
You stand in my way
With nothing to say
You think you're the world
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you
I'll do it again, I'll do it again
October, October
The summer is over
I'm moving in circles
I'm trying to come in
It's my evolution
The only solution
The torment, it's all that
I'm holding within
You stand in my way
You've nothing to say
You think you're the world
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you

I'll do it again
You stand in my way
You've nothing to say
You think you're the world
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you
I'll do it again, I'll do it again
Do it again
Do it again
Do it again
Don't stand in my way
With nothing to say
And think you're the world
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you
I'll do it again
With nothing to say
I'm so lost without you
I'm sorry, my friend
This is not the end
I'll do it without you
I'll do it again, I'll do it
