Judas Priest

I am the darkness
Born out of light
I am the force, the fire
That burns here tonightBringing the future
To all mankind
Guider of life, of death
The sight for the blindYour future lies within my eyes
What I predict will terrify
I can't control what comes to be
From the past to the present to eternityI am Nostradamus
Do you believe?
I am Nostradamus
That I conceiveMaster of chaos
Anger and rage
I hold the key
My presence will unlock the cageI am your witness
The one who can tell
Bearing the sword, the shield
To your heaven from hellAs I unfold the mystery
I change the course of history
With premonitions from the void
Will you live, will you die
Will your worlds collide?I am Nostradamus
The hand of fate
I am Nostradamus
With love and hateLost in this vortex
The mystery begins
Will you be victim
Saved from your sins?Time is illusion
Trapped in the skies
Destiny's calling
Hear from my eyesMany years ago a boy was born, a boy with a gift
A gift that would be the envy of all mankind
To see what no other could, great visions of the futureOr would a curse be bestowed on the boy
The boy whose name was Nostradamus?
Damus, damus, damus, damus, damusI am Nostradamus
Do not forsake
I am Nostradamus
Your life's at stakeI am Nostradamus

The lightning rod
I am Nostradamus
The voice of God Celestial comets
Rain towards earth
Alchemy's tempest
Predicting your worth Pray for deliverance
Escape if you can
For I have borne witness
To the purging of man
