High In Me

Patrice Rushen

High in Me Patrice Rushen
Donâ€™t ever say goodnight, thinking that you havenâ€™t satisfied.
Youâ€™re the only one that brings to light, all the miracles I have inside.
You make me feel the high, high in me. Fill me up with my destiny
I feel the high, (yeah) high in me. Love is like I thought it could always be.

So many times before, I was too afraid to open any door.
But then you came and made me sure, of a love that I could live my life for.

You made me feel the high (high!), high in me. Fill me up with my destiny.
I feel the high, high in me. Love is like I knew it could always be.

You fill me up, with tender love, and you make me smile.
If at times Iâ€™m insecure, my love donâ€™t doubt. Cause youâ€™re the only one who sees
All the things in this life that I could ever be.

My heart is open and Iâ€™ve got my high. Donâ€™t you see Iâ€™m living in paradise
Youâ€™re a miracle you brought my love to life. Keep me in your arms where Iâ€™m satisfied

Oh, you make me feel the high, (high)! High in me.
Fill me up with my destiny, I feel the high. High in me.
Love is like I thought it would always be. Oh, I feel the high! High in me.

Baby baby, baby baby. (3 times)
Oooooh high (high), high in me, fill me up with my destiny
I feel the high, High in me. Love is like I thought it would always be.
