Zombies Are Good For Your Health

Poison the Well

This morning when I awoke from the cushioned coils
Eyes pouring their little hearts, it didn't feel normal
Waking here religiously
Thinking the same black thoughtsAs always you were'nt lying next to me
With that smirk on your face right then
Were you giving me the images constantly flickering
I'll take the advice passed downI see you on your side, bad luck
I see you on your side, bad luckStarlit nights when I awoke from the cushioned coils
Eyes pouring their little hearts, it didn't feel normal
Nightmares stalk reality
Thinking the same black thoughts
