Warm

The Ghost Orchid

Warm my lips against your lips
And warm my finger tips
By giving me your handSo warm to have you close to me
And hold you tenderly
I never felt so burnedAll of my life I walked in the cold
Till I found your warm arms
For having to holdSo please don't ever let me go
For I could never know
A love that is so warmSo warm to have you close to me
And hold you tenderly
I never felt so burnedAll of my life I walked in the cold
Till I found your warm arms
For having to holdSo please don't ever let me go
For I could never know
A love that is so warm
