

Emotions

Jennifer Lopez

Someone took my emotions,
Don't forgive me, I didn't ask
Someone took my emotions,
I feel good, 'cause I don't feel bad
You say that you gon' take my heart babe
But I don't believe in fairytale
It's the same old thing, not a damn thing changed
You're playing games, playing games
Now I'm taking names, taking names now
And I don't play no more, baby, this is game over
Broke your heart so you could feel it
Think we're gonna think we're really through
Me and you
Tears fall down, feels like it's raining
Somewhere walkin' feel the pain in you
Only you (someone took) Someone took my emotions,
Don't forgive me, I didn't ask
Someone took my emotions,
I feel good, 'cause I don't feel bad
I've tried to give you all my time babe
But they never meant a thing to you
So don't you call my name, 'cause all my info changed
It's such a shame, what a shame
Now I'm breaking chains, breaking chains oh
And I don't play no more, baby this is game over
Broke your heart so you could feel it
Think we're gonna think we're really through
Me and you (this is)
Tears fall down, feels like it's raining
Somewhere walkin' feel the pain in you
Only you (someone took) Someone took my emotions,
Don't forgive me, I didn't ask
Someone took my emotions,
I feel good, 'cause I don't feel bad
All I ever wanted was your time
Right now I
Don't even have the patience
I'm tired of waiting for you
I just wanna let go
You tryin' to change me mind
But the answer's still no
Who are you
You don't mean nothing
You ain't worth nothing

When I tell you something
You don't learn from it
I got my bags at the door,Â Passport to go
When I leave, you gon' come running
You did it yeah
I got no feelings left
I'm so numb, you're so dumb
It's over, it's overSomeone took my emotions
Someone took my emotionsEverything, everything I do
Ah
Everything, everything I do
